Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/17

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 1: Identify Yourself

About Debtor 1:

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

8. How you will pay the fee ☒ I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order. If your attorney is submitting your payment on your behalf, your attorney may pay with a credit card or check with a pre-printed address.
- ☐ I need to pay the fee in installments. If you choose this option, sign and attach the Application for Individuals to Pay The Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A).
- ☐ I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. By law, a judge may, but is not required to, waive your fee, and may do so only if your income is less than 150% of the official poverty line that applies to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments). If you choose this option, you must fill out the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 103B) and file it with your petition.

Part 3: Report About Any Businesses You Own as a Sole Proprietor

12. Are you a sole proprietor of any full- or part-time business?

☒ No. Go to Part 4.

☐ Yes. Name and location of business

A sole proprietorship is a business you operate as an individual, and is not a separate legal entity such as a corporation, partnership, or LLC.

If you have more than one sole proprietorship, use a separate sheet and attach it to this petition.

Name of business, if any

Number, Street, City, State & ZIP Code

Check the appropriate box to describe your business:

- ☐ Health Care Business (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(27A))
- ☐ Single Asset Real Estate (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(51B))
- ☐ Stockbroker (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(53A))
- ☐ Commodity Broker (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(6))
- ☐ None of the above

13. Are you filing under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and are you a small business debtor?

For a definition of small business debtor, see 11 U.S.C. § 101(51D).

If you are filing under Chapter 11, the court must know whether you are a small business debtor so that it can set appropriate deadlines. If you indicate that you are a small business debtor, you must attach your most recent balance sheet, statement of operations, cash-flow statement, and federal income tax return or if any of these documents do not exist, follow the procedure in 11 U.S.C. 1116(1)(B).

☒ No. I am not filing under Chapter 11.

☐ No. I am filing under Chapter 11, but I am NOT a small business debtor according to the definition in the Bankruptcy Code.

☐ Yes. I am filing under Chapter 11 and I am a small business debtor according to the definition in the Bankruptcy Code.

Part 4: Report if You Own or Have Any Hazardous Property or Any Property That Needs Immediate Attention

14. Do you own or have any property that poses or is alleged to pose a threat of imminent and identifiable hazard to public health or safety? Or do you own any property that needs immediate attention?

☒ No.

☐ Yes. What is the hazard? _____

If immediate attention is needed, why is it needed? _____

For example, do you own perishable goods, or livestock that must be fed, or a building that needs urgent repairs?

Where is the property? _____

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

- ☒ You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
- ☐ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)

Codebtors are people or entities who are also liable for any debts you may have. Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, copy the Additional Page, fill it out, and number the entries in the boxes on the left. Attach the Additional Page to this page. On the top of any Additional Pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

1. Do you have any codebtors? (If you are filing a joint case, do not list either spouse as a codebtor.)

- ☒ No
☐ Yes

2. Within the last 8 years, have you lived in a community property state or territory? (Community property states and territories include Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Puerto Rico, Texas, Washington, and Wisconsin.)

- ☒ No. Go to line 3.
☐ Yes. Did your spouse, former spouse, or legal equivalent live with you at the time?

3. In Column 1, list all of your codebtors. Do not include your spouse as a codebtor if your spouse is filing with you. List the person shown in line 2 again as a codebtor only if that person is a guarantor or cosigner. Make sure you have listed the creditor on Schedule D (Official Form 106D), Schedule E/F (Official Form 106E/F), or Schedule G (Official Form 106G). Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245 filing fee

$75 administrative fee

+ $15 trustee surcharge

$335 total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

2. If Client, during representation by Law Firm, perpetrates a fraud upon any person or tribunal, the Law Firm is obligated to call upon the Client to rectify the same. If the Client refuses or is unable to do so, the Law Firm is required to reveal the fraud to the affected person or tribunal. Client is aware of an ethical requirement imposed upon all Law Firms in this state. Law Firm reserves the right to withdraw from Client representation if, among other things, Client fails to honor the terms of this binding Contract, including but not limited to: (a) client's failure to make timely payment of all fees including Law Firm and Court Filing fees, (b) client lying or omission of their income, assets, financial affairs, marital status, etc. (c) client attempting to commit bankruptcy fraud, income tax fraud, or any other illegal act,, (d) client's refusal or failure to timely provide financial documentation, including tax returns, paystubs, bank statements, etc.(e)client's refusal or failure to timely cooperate with Law Firm, including refusing to follow instructions, refusing to produce documentation,etc. (f) client's refusal or failure to timely follow Law Firm advice on a material matter including failure to pay law firm fees, (g) client's refusal or failure to timely complete court requirements, (h)client's refusal or failure to timely appear at Law Firm appointments, or (i)client's unacceptable conduct of belligerent, combative, threatening, harassing, bullying conduct to the Law Firm staff, including excessive calls(j)client unacceptable conduct harassing Law Firm staff, including multiple calls a day thereby disrupting law firm, staff, showing up without appointments, etc.(k)if any fact or circumstance arises or is discovered that would render continuing representation unlawful or unethical under the rules,
3. Client acknowledges their legal obligation to fully and completely disclosure all assets, all liabilities, income, marital status, etc. and to provide current and complete financial documents, tax returns, bank statements, income, benefit statements, etc. before bankruptcy can be finalized and filed with the court.
4. Client agrees that client has full client file and Law Firm may discard Client records within five (5) years of the completion of the Client's bankruptcy case. Client acknowledges client only provided copies and not original bills or documentation to law firm, and only copies shall be provided. Client acknowledges Law Firm shall immediately shred for their privacy any bills and documentation provided to Law Firm after review, and shall not be returned to client.
5. Client duties and responsibilities: (a) tell the full and complete truth to the law firm in all paperwork and in all conferences; (b) discuss with the attorney debtor's objectives in filing the case; (c.) timely provide law firm with full, accurate, complete information, financial and otherwise, including properly documented proof of income and benefits, tax returns, paystubs, bank statements etc.; (d) timely appear at all law firm conferences and all court hearings including the meeting of creditors (341) with their court required documentation and driver's license and social security card, proof of income and a picture identification card. (If the identification card does not include debtor's social security number, debtor must also bring to the meeting a social security card.) Debtor must be present in time for check-in and, when the case is called, for the actual examination. (e) notify the law firm of any change in debtor's address or telephone number. (f) timely supply the law firm with copies last 4 years of federal income tax returns, last 6 months of all bank statements, last 6 months current income and benefit statements for debtor and spouse regardless if spouse is fling or not, and any other documentation that the law Firm and or trustee requests. (g) timely pay law firm fees.
6. Law Firm shall provide Client with the following services: (a) Review and analyze Client's financial circumstances based on information provided by Client. (b) .if possible and to extent possible, based on the information Client provides, advise Client of options, including but not limited to bankruptcy options. (c) Inform Client what information Client needs to provide Law Firm in order to allow Law Firm to provide appropriate advice and option information, (d) Advise Client of appropriate requirements with filing Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 bankruptcy, including duties of Client connected with such filing. E personally counsel debtor regarding the advisability of filing either a Chapter 13 or a Chapter 7 case, discuss both procedures (as well as non-bankruptcy options) with debtor, and answer debtor's questions, (f) Quote the Client an estimated fee, to the extent possible given the information provided by Client, for the Law Firms service relative to providing bankruptcy assistance or other legal services to Client. (g). after a bankruptcy is filed, Law Firm services will include all typical Law Firm required participation in such proceeding, including but not limited to, appearances at all Court scheduled 341/Meeting of Creditors, preparation and filing of bankruptcy petition and schedules, and communication with opposing counsel and parties. If any additional 341 Meetings of Creditors besides the 1st scheduled 341 Meeting of Creditors, and any amendments must be filed, Client may be responsible for any additional court filing fees. (h) If Client's bankruptcy proceeding requires additional not customary work, Law Firm will inform Client directly, and enter into a separate written Post Filing contract for such services that will be filed with the court to fully apprise Client of the fees, payment requirements, and expected services to be provided. (i) Personally explain to debtor that the law firm is being engaged to represent debtor on all matters arising in the case, as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule, and explain how and when the law firm's fees are determined and paid. (j) Personally review with debtor and sign the completed petition, plan, statements, and schedules, as well as all amendments thereto, whether filed with the petition or later. (k) Timely prepare and file debtor's petition, plan, statements, and schedules after client provides all required documentation.
7. Client understands that individuals who file for relief under Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code are subject to audits by the U.S. Trustee. If Client's case is selected for an audit, Client agrees to pay Law Firm the customary hourly rate for representing Client in such audit.
8. Client acknowledges they must complete two courses for bankruptcy, a pre-filing/pre-petition credit counseling course before the bankruptcy petition can be filed with the court, and they must also complete a post Filing (after filing) pre-discharge financial management course. Client understands they pay the course providers directly. Client understands if client fails to complete and file their post filing financial management course certificate with the court by court deadline their case will be dismissed without a discharge and they will have to pay the court's $260 re-opening fee.
9. Client acknowledges every case is different and outcome of negotiations and litigation is subject to factors cannot be foreseen, and acknowledge Law Firm made no promises or guarantees concerning outcome of client's bankruptcy and nothing in this Contract shall be construed as such a promise or guarantee.
10. Client acknowledges Law Firm only represents client in my federal bankruptcy case, and law firm does not represent client in any other type of case, lawsuit or proceeding other than client's federal bankruptcy case. The Law Firm will not make a special appearance in a court, other than the Bankruptcy Court. It is client, responsibility to provide notification of client's bankruptcy proceedings, including another court so Client's proceedings may be stayed. Sending or receiving any summons or complaint, or notifying the Law Firm of a pending lawsuit shall not obligate the Law Firm to represent Client in that lawsuit or before that court. Client must attend all court hearing State and Federal. Any representation of Client in a state court proceeding, including without limitation: collection lawsuits, foreclosure lawsuits, etc., is not included in this Law Firm Bankruptcy Contract. Any referral made to another Law Firm to represent Client is a courtesy only. The Law Firm is not associated with any other Law Firm outside of the undersigned Law Firm's law offices.
11. Client acknowledges and agrees it is their sole responsibility, not the Law Firm, to properly list all their creditors on their bankruptcy and to review their bankruptcy schedules to insure they are complete and all creditors are properly listed in their bankruptcy. Client acknowledges the Law Firm will not list their bills and will not research creditor information, including addresses, account numbers, or balances, etc. Client acknowledges if they forgot or failed to properly list a creditor in their bankruptcy, and want to add a creditor to their BK, they are required to pay an additional court filing fee and law firm fee to properly include that creditor in their bankruptcy, and failure to do so may result in client having to pay that debt having unscheduled debts subject to non-dischargeability.

12. Client agrees that the following matters are not included within the scope of this Bankruptcy Law Firm Contract. Client agrees that, as to the matters listed below, the Law Firm will not take any action on Client's behalf, without a written request and/or a separate Retainer Contract and possibly an additional retainer, including but not limited to the following:

- a. Motions to revoke a discharge.
- b. Removal of a pending action in another court.
- c. Obtaining title reports.
- d. The determination of real estate or tax liens.
- e. Appeals to the BAP, District Court of Court of Appeals.
- f. Correcting credit reports,
- g. Negotiations with creditors or Check Systems regarding Client and their debts .
- h. Motions to Dismiss clients' bankruptcy case filed by the Trustee, U.S. Trustee, or any creditor.

INITIAL CONSULTATION AGREEMENT AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RECEIPT OF DISCLOSURES

This agreement is entered into on this day of _____ 2017, by and between _____, and Affordable Legal Services (referred to as "Law Firm").

1. I (We) have requested a consultation with the Attorney to obtain information and advice about debt issues and relief from debt, including the possibility of filing bankruptcy under the federal Bankruptcy Code. The Attorney agrees to provide an initial consultation concerning these matters. There is no charge for this initial consultation.

2. The Law Firm agrees to provide the following services at the initial consultation, based on the information I (we) have provided:

(a) Analyze my (our) financial circumstances and advise me (us) of possible bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy options for responding to my (our) financial problems. I (We) understand that this analysis is only preliminary, because the Law Firm does not have all of the information and documents that will be required to fully evaluate my (our) situation.

(b) Describe the potential benefits and the disadvantages of filing bankruptcy, and explain the relief available under chapters 7, 11, 12 and 13 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(c) Advise me (us) of the requirements, obligations and costs for filing a chapter 7 or 13 bankruptcy.

(d) Inform me (us) of the additional information that I (we) will need to provide to enable the Law Firm to more fully advise me (us) of my (our) potential options and legal rights.

3. I (We) agree to provide at the initial consultation information and documents, if any, concerning my (our) income, expenses, assets, and liabilities. I (We) understand that in order for the Law Firm to give meaningful advice, detailed financial information must be provided completely and accurately.

4. The Law Firm will provide at this time only the services specifically stated in this Agreement. If I (we) retain the Law Firm to represent me (us) and provide additional services, including the filing of bankruptcy or other bankruptcy assistance, I (we) and the Law Firm will sign a separate retainer agreement detailing the services and their cost, and the other terms of such representation.

5. I (We) acknowledge that the Law Firm gave to me (us) at the initial consultation copies of this agreement and several notices required by the Bankruptcy Code listed below. If my spouse was not present when these notices were received at the initial consultation, I also acknowledge receipt of these notices on behalf of my spouse, and agree to provide my spouse with a copy of these notices. All of the following documents were given me (us):

- (a) Initial Consultation Agreement
- (b) Notice Required by Sections 342(b) and 527(a) of the Bankruptcy Code
- (c) Notice Required by Section 527(b) of the Bankruptcy Code

STATEMENT OF INFORMATION REQUIRED BY 11 U.S.C. §341

INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to the Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1994, the Office of the United States Trustee, United States Department of Justice, has prepared this information sheet to help you understand some of the possible consequences of filing a bankruptcy petition under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This information is intended to make you aware of...

- (1) the potential consequences of seeking a discharge in bankruptcy, including the effects on credit history;
- (2) the effect of receiving a discharge of debts
- (3) the effect of reaffirming a debt; and
- (4) your ability to file a petition under a different chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

There are many other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code that may affect your situation. This information sheet contains only general principles of law and is not a substitute for legal advice. If you have questions or need further information as to how the bankruptcy laws apply to your specific case, you should consult with your lawyer.

WHAT IS A DISCHARGE?

The filing of a chapter 7 petition is designed to result in a discharge of most of the debts you listed on your bankruptcy schedules. A discharge is a court order that says you do not have to repay your debts, but there are a number of exceptions. Debts which may not be discharged in your chapter 7 case include, for example, most taxes, child support, alimony, and student loans; court-ordered fines and restitution; debts obtained through fraud or deception; and personal injury debts caused by driving while intoxicated or taking drugs. Your discharge may be denied entirely if you, for example, destroy or conceal property; destroy, conceal or falsify records; or make a false oath. Creditors cannot ask you to pay any debts which have been discharged. You can only receive a chapter 7 discharge once every eight (8) years.

WHAT ARE THE POTENTIAL EFFECTS OF A DISCHARGE?

The fact that you filed bankruptcy can appear on your credit report for as long as 10 years. Thus, filing a bankruptcy petition may affect your ability to obtain credit in the future. Also, you may not be excused from repaying any debts that were not listed on your bankruptcy schedules or that you incurred after you filed for bankruptcy.

WHAT ARE THE EFFECTS OF REAFFIRMING A DEBT?

After you file your petition, a creditor may ask you to reaffirm a certain debt or you may seek to do so on your own. Reaffirming a debt means that you sign and file with the court a legally enforceable document, which states that you promise to repay all or a portion of the debt that may otherwise have been discharged in your bankruptcy case. Reaffirmation agreements must generally be filed with the court within 60 days after the first meeting of the creditors.

Reaffirmation agreements are strictly voluntary — they are not required by the Bankruptcy Code or other state or federal law. You can voluntarily repay any debt instead of signing a reaffirmation agreement, but there may be valid reasons for wanting to reaffirm a particular debt.

Reaffirmation agreements must not impose an undue burden on you or your dependents and must be in your best interest. If you decide to sign a reaffirmation agreement, you may cancel it at any time before the court issues your discharge order or within sixty (60) days after the reaffirmation agreement was filed with the court, whichever is later. If you reaffirm a debt and fail to make the payments required in the reaffirmation agreement, the creditor can take action against you to recover any property that was given as security for the loan and you may remain personally liable for any remaining debt.

OTHER BANKRUPTCY OPTIONS

You have a choice in deciding what chapter of the Bankruptcy Code will best suit your needs. Even if you have already filed for relief under chapter 7, you may be eligible to convert your case to a different chapter.

Chapter 7 is the liquidation chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Under chapter 7, a trustee is appointed to collect and sell, if economically feasible, all property you own that is not exempt from these actions.

Chapter 11 is the reorganization chapter most commonly used by businesses, but it is also available to individuals. Creditors vote on whether to accept or reject a plan, which also must be approved by the court. While the debtor normally remains in control of the assets, the court can order the appointment of a trustee to take possession and control of the business.

Chapter 12 offers bankruptcy relief to those who qualify as family farmers. Family farmers must propose a plan to repay their creditors over a three-to-five year period and it must be approved by the court. Plan payments are made through a chapter 12 trustee, who also monitors the debtor's farming operations during the pendency of the plan.

Finally, chapter 13 generally permits individuals to keep their property by repaying creditors out of their future income. Each chapter 13 debtor writes a plan which must be approved by the bankruptcy court. The debtor must pay the chapter 13 trustee the amounts set forth in their plan. Debtors receive a discharge after they complete their chapter 13 repayment plan. Chapter 13 is only available to individuals with regular income whose debts do not exceed $1,000,000 ($250,000 in unsecured debts and $750,000 in secured debts).

AGAIN, PLEASE SPEAK TO YOUR LAWYER IF YOU NEED FURTHER INFORMATION OR EXPLANATION, INCLUDING HOW THE BANKRUPTCY LAWS RELATE TO YOUR SPECIFIC CASE. I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

B201A (form 201A) (11/11) In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $46 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $306)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $281)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1000 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $1046)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $246)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

DEADLINE AND DOCUMENTS REQUIRED TO FILE BANKRUPTCY

I understand Court requires me under Section 521(a)(1) of Bankruptcy Code to promptly provide & file complete, current detailed information regarding my creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. All documentation is required to be current in the bankruptcy. Just as you would not eat an expired food, your documentation can not be expired. My bankruptcy may be

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a 'trustee' and by creditors.

If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a Chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your Chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.

Disclosure Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 527(a)(2) of Bankruptcy Code

The purpose of this Notice and The Statement Mandated by Section 527(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which you have been provided as a separate document, are to make you aware of some of your obligation should you file bankruptcy.

Note: This Notice and the Statement are required by legislation adopted by the 2005 Congress. So long as you are honest and meet the requirements set out under the law you are entitled to debt relief. We can guide you through all the requirements of filing bankruptcy so long as you provide us accurate and complete information.

You are notified as follows:

1. All information that you are required to provide with your bankruptcy petition and thereafter in your case is required to be complete, accurate and truthful.
2. All your assets and all your liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence your case.
3. The value of each asset which is secured by a lien on such asset must be stated as the replacement value of such asset after reasonable inquiring to establish such value. The replacement value means the replacement value of the date of the filing of the bankruptcy petition without deduction for costs of sale or marketing. With respect to property acquired for personal, family or household purposes, replacement value means the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind considering the age and condition of the property at the time value as determined.
4. After reasonable inquiry you are required to state your current monthly income. Current monthly income is described on the attached of Terms and Definitions Addendum.
5. After reasonable inquiry you are required to state the amounts set out in section 707(b) (2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Those amounts are explained in the attached Terms and Definitions Addendum.
6. In a case under Chapter 13, after reasonable inquiry, you are required to state your disposable income determined in accordance with section 707(b) (2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Disposable income is explained on the attached addendum of Terms and Definitions.
7. Information that you provide during your case may be audited pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Your failure to provide accurate and complete information may result is dismissal of your case or other sanctions, including criminal sanctions.
8. Certain property you own is called "exempt property" and is not property of the Bankruptcy Estate. Exemptions are based upon either the Bankruptcy Code or State law. In the state of Illinois exemptions are determined by state statutory law and the Illinois Constitution. In order to avail yourself of the exemptions of the state of Illinois you must have continuously lived in the state of Illinois for the 180 days immediately preceding the filing of your petition.

I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.

SECURED PROPERTY DISCLOSURE

Secured property occurs when you make a purchase (car, electronics, furniture, jewelry, home, etc) and the creditor/lender retains a secured lien interest on that property. This debt is secured by the property. If you fail to pay the secured debt the creditor will repossess the property, and sue you for the balance you owe, plus attorneys' fees, repossession costs, court costs, interest and penalties, etc. Bankruptcy does not wipeout/eliminate your secured debts. You cannot keep the secured property and not pay. This would be fraud and a crime. You must make a choice. Basically, you either timely continue to pay the secured debt/loan or you timely surrender the property back to the creditor/lender.

SURRENDER: You may surrender the item back to the secured creditor/lender in your bankruptcy case. If you choose to this you will no longer be required to make any payments on the loan/secured debt, and you will not be held responsible for repayment after your bankruptcy case is completed. If you choose to surrender the property, you must contact the creditor and make arrangements to drop off the property to them, or the date and time when the creditor can retrieve the property. You can not hide the secured debt and not return it or you will face additional fees and or criminal actions against you.

REAFFIRMATION: What is a Reaffirmation Contract? We call it a Post-Bankruptcy contract. Before you filed BK you signed a contract to legally obligate yourself to pay that debt. After you filed BK that contract is no longer fully valid. Your secured lender hired a Law Firm to prepare a contract for you to sign after you filed BK, called a "Reaffirmation Contract." Once you sign their legal contract, you are legally bound (obligated) to pay the entire debt, and agreeing to the terms of their contract, allowing them to repossess, charge interest, penalties, and sue you if you ever become late with a payment. If you default on a payment, the creditor can repossess the property and sue you for the balance due on the loan. You have 60 days after you sign the reaffirmation contract to change your mind by "rescinding" the contract. You (not your attorney) can only rescind by sending your rescind letter by certified mail to the creditor, their attorney, and filing it with the Bankruptcy Court, before 60 days past of signing contract. If you wish to sign the reaffirmation contract to reaffirm the debt, you will be required to attend a court hearing to have the contract approved by the court. Pursuant to your contract we do not represent you at this hearing. The judge will determine whether this debt will cause you and your family a financial hardship, whether you can afford the debt, whether it is in your best interest, and the best interest of your family. We do not believe you can afford the debt, nor that reaffirming the debt is in your best interests and that it will cause you financial hardship, therefore we will not sign it stating that it is in your "financial best interests." If we receive a reaffirmation from a secured lender we will forward it to you. However, it is up to you to contact your secured lender promptly after your BK is filed and ask them to provide you with a reaffirmation contract. By signing the reaffirmation contract, you will have to timely provide the contract to the secured creditor and deal directly with them and attend all court hearings with regard to the secured debt.

REPOSSESSION: Signing a reaffirmation contract does not prevent your vehicle from being repossessed. Your secured debt will be repossessed, if you your payments are not current during your BK are current, you fail to provide proof of insurance to the lender, and that you failed to timely provide the lender the signed and completed reaffirmation contract sign. So long as the payments are made, the creditor should not repossess the property. If the property is repossessed, you will not be held responsible for the balance, however you will not receive any refund for the money you already paid for the vehicle or secured property.

MOTION TO LIFT STAY: The first step in starting the repossession process against you. This Motion allows creditor to continue their State Court Action which was stayed, in order to obtain (repossess) the secured property that you are late on your payments, etc.

If you are late on your payments, failed to provide the secured lender your proof of insurance, failed to sign their reaffirmation contract, or stated your intent to surrender the property, etc. the secured lender hired a Law Firm to file a motion to lift stay. Lift the Stay means the Secured Lender's Law Firm appears in court to ask BK judge to allow them permission to proceed against you to repossess and re-take possession of your vehicle if you are late on your vehicle or other secured property payments. If you are late on your payments, these Motions are most often granted as a matter of right in Judge's Chambers, so you will not need to attend the hearing. If you do not want them to repossess the vehicle or other secured property contact your secured lender and provide them the current default payments and insurance and reaffirmation contract. This may not alleviate the repossession, however they may be willing to work with you. Pursuant to contract we do not represent you for any Motion's to Lift Stay. If you wish we attend the court hearing on your behalf you will need to come in and sign retainer and pay a court appearance fee.

Remember you cannot keep the property without paying! Financially the best solution may be to surrender the vehicle/property

If you to keep the secured property, you must do the following:

1. Immediately after the filing of your BK, contact your secured lender and inform them you want to keep the secured debt,
2. Provide the secured lender your payment for your overdue balance, plus interest, attorneys fees, court fees, interest, etc. to come current,
3. Ask them to mail you their reaffirmation contract to sign, and
4. Provide the secured lender your signed reaffirmation contract making you legally liable for any future late, attorneys, interest, court, interest fees, etc
5. You must remain current with your monthly payments throughout your BK;
6. You must provide the secured lender proof you have insurance if a vehicle or home, etc.

If you wish to surrender. Contact your secured lender immediately after the filing of your Bk and inform them you wish to surrender and return the property back to them. Set up a date and time and surrender the property. Take photos of the property to show you did not damage the property, and a copy of your insurance on the property

As you are aware, you are required to attend all State Court hearings. You must attend all court motions/hearing State, Federal, Criminal, etc. otherwise you will be held in contempt of court; you will be arrested, and will have to pay a fine and go to jail.

REDEMPTION LUMP SUM: You may contact the secured creditor an offer them a reasonable lump sum payment for the property to wipe out the lien. If the creditor accepts your offer, you must promptly pay the creditor the lump sum to keep the property. Try this if you have electronics, jewelry, or smaller secured debt items.

REDEMPTION 722 (CAR ONLY): If you don't have a lump sum, you may contact a Redemption company. A company may help you qualify to keep your car and have your car payments reduced significantly. If you qualify and choose to redeem, they will finance our attorneys' fees into the settlement for hourly fee to draft, file, and argue before the court the necessary motions with the bankruptcy court. If you qualify for one of these programs you must timely inform the secured lender and inform our law firm by Gmail that you qualify.

CONTINUE PAYING: If you continue making payments on your secured loans hoping your creditors will not try to repossess the property, even if you are current on your payments, creditor may still repossess the property because you failed to provide them your proof of insurance or did not timely provide them your signed reaffirmation contract.

PRIOR TO FILING WE REQUIRE YOUR DECISION ON YOUR STATEMENT OF INTENTION YOUR CHOICE OF SURRENDER, REDEMPTION, AND REAFFIRMATION IF YOU FAIL TO PROVIDE US YOUR SIGNED STATEMENT OF INTENTION, THE CREDITOR IS PERMITTED TO REPOSSESS THE PROPERTY.

I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.
